

Pork Takes Unto Itself Wings

Help! Cries Housewife, as Ham and Chops Aviate; Fruit Is Cheaper, Furnishing Some Consolation to the Woman Who Runs the House.

"H.E.P." cried the housewife's pork, as the price of pork, taking unto itself wings, soared up to 10 cents a pound, and the ham, seeing the situation set by the brother pork chop, made a mad sprint in the same direction and ran up to one whole dollar for a pound.

To relieve the housewife's agonized feelings from this situation in the price of the necessary foodstuffs to get before father for his morning meal, the price of potatoes for which demand is at its peak, and with the promise of the New Mexico and 20 Pan valley potatoes to come in generous quantities next week, the sterner realities of life and the increased price of pork can be forgotten while this delicious fruit is enjoyed.

The list of the mountain cherries for sale or to be eaten just as they are, have disappeared from the market and will not return again until the spring of next year. The same sad path has been taken by currants, and wild green plums.

Well peppers that stuffed with meat offer a delicious change from ordinary fare. They are cheaper than last week and can be bought for 10 cents a pound and made into chicken gumbo, that gives a relish of southern cooking. Potatoes are also on hand and as the housewife can still laugh in hope even if the price of pork has gone up.

Some of the prices are:

Fruits.
Fresh peaches, 1 lb. or 2 lbs. for 25c.
Valley apples, 1 lb. or 2 lbs. for 25c.
Watermelons, 1 lb. or 2 lbs. for 25c.

Use "Gets-It," Corns Shriveled, Vanish!

It's the New Way, and You'll Forget You Ever Had Corns.

"2 drops put on in 2 seconds, corns shrivel, come clean off! That's the marvelous action of 'GETS-IT,' the new-plant corn cure. Nothing can be simpler for the cure of corns—and it never fails. That's why millions of people are using "GETS-IT" today and throwing away their old corn plaster, sticky, tape, ice-eating salves, and "wrapping outfits" that make a bundle around the toe and choke it into pain by pressing either on or around the corn. There is nothing to stick to your stocking, nothing to cause inflammation or rawness, nothing to press on or around the corn. You apply it in 2 seconds. No more knives, razors, saws or files, with their blood-poison dangers. Try "GETS-IT" for that corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25¢ a bottle, sent direct by Lawrence & Co., Chicago—Advertisement.

500 PEOPLE SEE MIXED RACES RUN

Great Interest Is Shown in Novelty Handicap For Mexican Army Horses.

About 500 people saw the race program Thursday afternoon at the Jueces race track. The program included motor car and motorcycle races, besides a number of horse and trotting contests. Governor-elect Ferguson and Mayor Kelly were among the visitors, besides many of the delegates to the Democratic convention.

But three of the entries in the motorcycle contest appeared. Those were Ashley, Indian, Keating, Indian, and Ochs, Indian. The race was won by Ochs, who kept the lead from the start over the one mile course, covering it in 1:40 minutes. Keating was second, 1:45 minutes, Ashley dropping out in the second lap.
